

Dr Sandra Schiller

Areas of interest:

Health Humanities, in particular Ethics and Diversity; Community Development in Occupational Therapy and Social Transformation through Occupation

Training:

Doctorate (Dr. phil.) in Medieval and Modern History and English Literature and Linguistics at Heidelberg University (Germany) (2002)

M. A. in Medieval and Modern History and English Literature and Linguistics at Heidelberg University (Germany) (1997)

Dipl.-Bibl. State certified librarian for research libraries at the University of Applied Sciences for Librarianship in Frankfurt am Main (Germany) (1989)

Affiliation:

since 2002 full-time lecturer at the Faculty of Social Work and Health, HAWK University of Applied Sciences and Arts Hildesheim/Holzminen/Göttingen, Hildesheim, Germany

Appointments and memberships:

Chair of the German Occupational Therapy Association (DVE) Working Group on Community Development in Occupational Therapy (since 2012)

Member of the coordination group of the International Social Transformation through Occupation Network (since 2016)

Member of the OT-EU Interest Group Displaced Persons of the European Occupational Therapy Associations COTEC and ENOTHE (funding period 2017-18, since then honorary)

Founding member of the German Occupational Science Group dOS e.V. (since 2017)